REMARKS:
Please note the attached letter. I spoke with the good professor today and he was indeed aware that you are now a private person. He said he had simply assumed we would send his letter on to you. I'm doing it herewith. (I told Hancock, incidentally, the Agency would be unable to send someone.) Best regards.

Remarks: It appears the writer thinks Mr. Colby is still at CIA. If it were meant for him as private citizen, I should think he would have asked that the letter be forwarded.

Mr. William Colby
CIA Headquarters
Langley, VA

Dear Mr. Colby:

During the Fall Quarter (September 27 - November 29, 1976) I will be teaching a class entitled The CIA Question at California State University at Hayward. You are cordially invited to address the class on any aspect of the Agency's structure or activities that you wish.

The class will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4:00 to 5:50 pm. At the present time, all dates during that time period are open except October 18. Ample opportunity for student questions should be available following your remarks.

Regrettably, the University does not have funds for honoraria or travel expenses. Nevertheless, I hope that this will not dissuade you and that we may hear from you positively.

Sincerely,

John D. Hancock
Professor of Mathematics and Education

P.S. If you wish to discuss this matter on the telephone, try my office (415) 881-3449, my home or leave a message at the Mathematics Department Office (415) 881-3414.
